

INFORMATIVE QUOTES by Bob Upgren

“You can’t be anything you want to be, but you can certainly be everything God created you to be.”

“God specifically created you in a way like no one else. That uniqueness is your secret to a life of significance.”

“Your significant life begins when your selfish life ends.”

“The sooner you realize there is a God and your not it, the sooner the meaning and purpose for your life will unfold.”

“The last thing you would ever want God to say is ‘Why weren’t you, YOU?’”

“The sweet spot of your life is the intersection between you passion and talent.”

“Passion without talent is 90% of the contestants who tryout for American Idol.”

“Talent without passion is the exceptional person taking their giftedness for granted.”

“Our role as parents is not to help our children become successful by the worlds standards. It is to help our sons and daughters discover the amazing answer to this question, ‘What do you think God has created you to be?’”

“Watching a person use their God-given ability to serve man kind is the utopia of existence.”

“When we ask a child what they want to be when they grow up a chain reaction begins. First, they look out to a culture that tells them money, fame, status, and comfort is the key to success and purpose of life. Secondly, they pursue a life that will strive to achieve these things. Third, they achieve some of the things and realize those things are not what life is about at all. Fourth, they restart the process of trying to determine what the purpose of their life really is.”

“At the exact time your gifts, passions, and talents are being revealed in your life, the culture offers you things that will rip them apart. Your role in the process is to choose.”

“You can’t lead anyone until you can lead yourself.”

“The choices you make today, shape who you will become tomorrow.”

“Don’t try to determine what job you want.. The fact is, there are jobs that exist today that will not exist five years from now, and there are jobs that don’t exist today that will be available five years from now. The secret is to learn the arenas of life you were born to compete in. Once a person discovers this, they are one step closer to living a life of significance and fulfillment.”

“You don’t just reap what you sow, you reap more than you sow.”
